ABU DHABI: Around 900 works by more than 300 artists from around the world will be on show at this year's Abu Dhabi Art fair.

The 14th edition of the event, that opened on Wednesday, will be the largest and most diverse to date with at least 80 galleries from 28 countries representing the exhibiting artists.

"Beyond: Emerging Artists," features the works of up-and-coming UAE-based artists Majd Alloush, Sarah Al-Mehairi, and Mohammed Khalid, who explore themes such as consumerism, borders, and man-made territories.
