Artist readies Al Quoz exhibition

CARBON 12 GALLERY presents 'Camelops Femina', Olaf Breuning's first solo exhibition at the venue.

The collection of photographs depicts an extinct species of camels that wandered across North America thousands of years ago.

Born in 1970 in Switzerland, Breuning is now based in New York. He has held more than 250 solo shows in places from London's Saatchi Gallery to Miami's Moca - and boasts a diverse body of work from films to sculptures to drawing.

'Camelops Femina' opens on March 18 and runs until April 30 at Carbon 12 in Al Quoz, Dubai.

Best of British

Design fair announces new partnership

THE SECOND EDITION of Design Days Dubai will welcome the British Crafts Council to the UAE.

Taking place in Downtown Dubai (near the Burj Khalifa) from March 18 to 21, the event is dedicated to collectible and limited edition furniture and design objects.

Eighteen experts from four commercial galleries will showcase the best in British craftsmanship - ranging from metal objects and hand crafted furniture to ceramics and glass.

The British Crafts Council will also screen a number of short films and host a panel discussion on contemporary craft on Monday, March 18.
